

Heyy, my name is Emma! I'm on my second year of bachelor's studies of public international law.

I'm originally from a small town close to Turku called Parainen and I've been living in Turku since I started studying. I play football in Parainen and I used to play handball when I was younger :)

I'm looking forward to meeting you all!